EASTERN DATES TO NOVEMBER 4

Washington News

WASHINGTON Nov 1 — In the Supreme Court to day Chief Justice Chase delivered an opinion in the case of Thornington vs Smith & Hasley and decided that a promissory note given in payment of property purchased at Montgomery in 1864 when the authority of the United States was excluded from that part of the State and the only currency in use was Confederate Treasury notes, is payable in Confederate notes alone and that the U S Courts possess power to enforce the same. The Court also ruled that contracts stipulating for payments in that currency cannot be regarded as made in aid of foreign invasion in one case or domestic insurrection in the other. They have no necessary relations to a hostile Government whether invading or insurgents. They are transactions in the ordinary course of civil society, though made indirectly and propose ends unlawful. Government is without blame, except when it is proved to have been entered into with an actual intention to further invasion or insurrection.

An order has been issued from the War Department for one hundred recruits to be sent from Newport, Ky, to Fort Randall and detachments from Fort Columbia N Y to Forts Stevens, Rice and Sully, Dakota. All are for assignment in the 22d Infantry. Gen Belknap made his appearance at the War Department this morning, and the oath of office was administered. Officers of the army and navy were introduced by General Sherman.

The Commissioner of Indian Affairs has received official information of the death Santana chief of the Kiowas and the leader of the Indians in the desperate Washita river fight with Custer's forces about a year ago.

PULASKI N Y, Nov 1 — Stephen C Miller editor of the Pulaski Democrat died yesterday, also Capt D C [illegible] of the revenue cutter Chase.

LOUISVILLE Nov 1 — John B Norman the veteran editor of the New Albany daily Ledger the oldest daily in Indiana was suddenly stricken by apoplexy yesterday and died in a short time. Norman had occupied the editorial chair twenty two years and was considered to be one of best campaign managers in the West. He was 45 years old.

CORINNE Nov 1 — J H Beadle, editor of the Utah Reporter while attending Probate Court to day, at Brigham City was set upon by Mormons and beaten nearly to death. The cause of the attack is Beadle's writings against polygamy. The principal assailant is a son of the Probate Judge who stood looking at the attempted assassination. Trouble is apprehended to morrow.

Gas Explosion at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Nov 1 — A singular explosion occurred this morning in the shaft leading to the lake tunnel, resulting in the serious injury of four workmen. Gas had leaked through the curbing into the shaft. One workman lit a match to see if the atmosphere was affected with fire damp when the explosion took place. One man is probably fatally injured.

St. Louis Dispatch

ST LOUIS, Nov 1 — An Omaha dispatch says parties from Salt Lake report that several Mormon dignitaries connected with the Science Cooperative Association have been publicly excommunicated by the Mormon church causing considerable excitement among their friends.

The feeling against Captain Washington, of the Submarine No 3, who passed the Stonewall while she was burning and when of course lives could have been saved, is very intense. A report from Cape Girardeau, says a vigilance committee is formed there to hang him on his return up the river.

New York News.

NEW YORK Nov 1 — An agreement for the consolidation of the Central and Hudson River Railroad, was ratified to day. The capital stock is 45,000,000, 15 per cent to the Central and 85 per cent to Hudson River Company. Vanderbilt is President of the consolidated company and August Schull, Secretary.

The dwelling of David H McAlpine West Twenty ninth street, was robbed yesterday of diamonds valued at $7 000 by a sneak thief who entered the house while the family was at dinner.

Fisk & Gould have brought suit for perjury against Charles C Allen, one of the parties who sued them for refusing to carry out their gold contracts. Allen waived an examination and was held in 5,000 bonds to await the action of the grand jury.

A company of 200 Swedish immigrants started to day for Montana to settle on a tract of land already purchased.

The Treasury Department to-day announced that it will purchase $10,000,000 in bonds and sell $10,000,000 in gold during November. The Express says this announcement caused great disgust among the speculators in gold and gold bonds. The result was free sales at lower prices for both. Some speculators threw overboard all their gold and bonds to become bears.

A Little Breeze in Nashville.

NASHVILLE, Nov 1 — In the Lower House of the Legislature to day a Preamble was offered citing a clause in the Constitution of Tennessee providing that no Senator or Representative shall, during the term for which he is elected, be eligible to any office or appointment which is vested in the Executive or Legislative, except to the office of trustee of a literary institution, and another resolution declaring the election of Cooper, Representative from Davidson county in the State Senate to the United States Senate illegal and void, and providing for a Legislative Convention to elect a Senator in his place. Motion to suspend the rules in order to lay the resolution on the table failed—31 to 30, and the resolution was referred to the Judiciary Committee. The movement has created considerable excitement. The author is a warm supporter of Andrew Johnson who is still in Nashville. John Bell was elected to the Senate some years ago while a Representative in the Legislature and took his seat. Johnson's supporters say this may be a precedent but it is not law.

The House bill calling a State Convention passed on first reading in the Senate.

Miscellaneous

CINCINNATI, Nov 1 — When the Grand Jury in the Common Pleas Court was impanneled to-day, it was discovered that one juror had served in the Penitentiary and that another was the man for robbing whom he was sent there. BOSTON Nov 1 Harmony Hall at Green Junction, was burned yesterday loss 8 000.

Secretary Boutwell has written a gold broker here that his reason for not selling gold at Boston is, that the receipts of gold at the Boston Custom House do not exceed the payments hence he can't sell gold there.

Whisky at Cincinnati. The Bible Banished

CINCINNATI Nov 2 [illegible] barrels of spirits have been distilled in Montgomery county since January 1st.

T H Harder of the Macon, Ohio Mirror has purchased the Dayton Ledger and will add thirty thousand dollars to the stock. It will change to morning issue.

Henry Stoddard a leading lawyer of Dayton died yesterday aged 82 years.

Of 22 votes in the Board of Education last night for excluding the Bible from the public schools 10 were Republican and 12 Democratic. Three professed no religion, ten were Catholics, eighteen free thinkers and one Jew. Of the fifteen votes against excluding two were Republicans and three Democrats. Thirteen were Protestants one a free thinker and one a Jew. The champion of the party for exclusion, was Rev Thos H Vickers. The liberal champion for retaining the Bible was Rev A D Mayo Unitarian Minister. Resolutions were also passed forbidding religious exercises and the singing of sacred songs.

More from Dr Livingston

NEW YORK Nov 2 A special despatch from Zanzibar to the Herald by way of London conveys very interesting and pleasing intelligence from Dr Livingstone dated August 8th, 1869. He was then in good health and had requested supplies and medical instruments and almanacs for 1869 and 1870 to be forwarded to him. This indicating as is supposed an intention to remain in the country some time longer. He claimed to have discovered the true source of the Nile but his communications are meagre with respect to general news.

New York News

NEW YORK Nov 2 Archibald Douglass who was shot in a political altercation by Thos Jackson Deputy Sheriff died at the hospital yesterday.

A story comes from Washington that Commander Kirkland, in evidence relating to the Washburne difficulties in Paraguay before the Congressional investigating committee, testified that Mrs. Washburne said in his hearing that a proposition had been made at her husband's table to overthrow Lopez and put his brother Domingo in power. The Secretary of Legation of the Argentine Confederation at Washington, has protested against Mr McMahon's report relative to allied outrages in Paraguay, and it was considered probable that yesterday a personal difficulty would occur between him and McMahon.

WORCESTER, Nov 2 — A four oared race for $1,000 and the championship of the United States between the Stephen Salisbury, Sr, Crew, of this city, and the Neptune Crew, of Boston, will take place on Lake Quinsigamond on Thursday.

NEW YORK, Nov 2 — It is stated that Solicitor Banfield and Secretary Boutwell had a long conversation with the President yesterday on the subject of the investigation of the charges against General Butterfield. No written report has been made or prepared, and no investigation except by the Solicitors, has been ordered. No successor to Butterfield has yet been appointed, as the office is not considered a very desirable one. Chas J Folgier is said to have been offered it.

A World special from Port Jervis says a railroad accident occurred about 5 o'clock this morning, by which one man was burned to death and fourteen tons of coal oil, tobacco and cotton entirely consumed. When the fire had reached its height, Jas Ropjas, brakeman, was seen in the midst of the flames but it was impossible to approach near enough to render any aid, and he was in a short time, roasted. The fire is supposed to have originated from a locomotive.

Betting on the Elections.

NEW YORK, Nov 2 — The pools sold to night on the State election were mostly Democratic majorities, except a pool of $500, which was sold on an even bet that Nelson, Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, would have 15 000 majority. On the sale of chances of Sigel running ahead of Greeley, Sigel brought $100 and Greeley $50. In one or two smaller pools Greeley was the favorite. The odds in pools sold last night were two to five in favor of the Democrats and 190 to 75 in Greeley's case. The weather is delightful and the election is progressing favorably.

General Telegrams.

BALTIMORE, Nov 2 — Ex Governor Wickliffe of Kentucky, died in Howard county, at the residence of his son-in law, on Sunday last.

The loss by fire at Abbott's rolling mill, last night, was $100,000.

HUDSON, N Y, Nov 2 — A train on the Albany and Boston railroad which left Albany at two o'clock this morning ran into a locomotive house at Chatham Four Corners, by the misplacement of the switch, completely demolishing half the building and badly damaging two locomotives. The switch was evidently intentionally misplaced.

HAVANA, Nov. 2 — Six battalions of Mobilized troops have gone to the seat of war.

BELFAST, Nov 2 — In the case of Staples, a deaf mute, against the Kenebec and Portland railroad Co, a verdict was rendered for $5 000 for the plaintiff. Defendants moved for a new trial.

TROY, Nov 2 — General Wool is seriously ill at his residence in this city and grave apprehensions are felt as regards his recovery. He is eighty six years of age.

ST LOUIS Nov 2 — The Baptist Sunday School Convention met here to day. Twenty seven States were represented and great interest was manifested.

MONTREAL Nov 2 — A scheme for the Canada Pacific Railroad was formed to day. The length of the line is to be 2 600 miles. Capital £20,000 000.

NEW YORK Nov 2 — It is announced that Charles T Folger has been offered the place of sub Treasurer, vacated by Butterfield.

Election Returns.

NEW YORK, Nov 2 — Returns from the interior to eight P M, show uniform Democratic gains compared with the last Presidential vote. The city gives an immense Democratic majority. The total vote is 125,000. There seems no doubt of the election of the entire Democratic ticket. Greeley runs ahead of his ticket. Disjointed returns show almost universal Democratic gains over last year.

AUBURN, Nov 2 — Sigel has 366 majority a Republican loss of 312.

NEW YORK, Nov 2 — King's county gives ten thousand Democratic majority. One hundred and twenty towns in the interior give a Democratic gain of 4 082. The Democratic majority in the city is probably 45 000. Greeley runs ahead of his ticket from seven to eight thousand. Democrats lose over 15 000 in New York and Brooklyn but gain so largely in the interior that there seems no doubt of the election of the whole Democratic State ticket by ten to twenty thousand majority. The State Senate is doubtful, and probably Republican by two or three majority. The Democrats gain one Senator in the Monroe District and are likely to gain in one or two others. The Assembly is undoubtedly Republican.

Twenty two wards in the city give Nelson Democratic candidate for Secretary of State 43 456 Allen, (Dem) for Controller 39 587.

Kalbfleisch (Dem) is elected Mayor of Brooklyn.

Judge Nelson (Dem) candidate for Secretary of State estimates his majority in the State at 20 000.

Late returns make the election of Morgan as Senator in Duchess county district, probable. There were 160 arrests for illegal voting to day. The returns indicate the election of all the Tammany candidates for the Assembly in the city. The Tribune estimates that the State has gone Democratic by a majority of at least 12 000 on the whole ticket.

Massachusetts Election

BOSTON Nov 2 — The vote is comparatively small. The city gives Claflin 7 760 Adams 1 083 Chamberlain (workingmen's candidate) 510. George M Brooks is elected to Congress in the 7th District in the place of Boutwell.

News from the election says seventy four towns foot up for Claflin 20 952 Adams 11 110 and Chamberlain 1 626. The complexion of the Legislature is undecided but at 8 o'clock the anti prohibitionists were out in force with bands of music. The indications are that they have carried the Legislature. Gov Claflin is re-elected by a plurality of ten to fifteen thousand. The vote in 157 towns and cities give Claflin 42 145 Adams 37 150 and Chamberlain 10 500. The Legislature is claimed by both the prohibitionists and license men and is probably pretty nearly divided on the liquor question. The Republicans have a strong majority in both branches.

Wisconsin Election

MILWAUKEE Nov 2 The Republican State Central Committee estimates Fairchild's Republican majority at about 5 000. The Legislature is about the same complexion as that of last year.

Thirty seven towns in Minnesota give a Democratic majority of 200 but it is estimated that Austin Republican will have a majority in the state of 3 000 or 4,000.

Election in Maryland

BALTIMORE Nov 2 — The vote of the city is unusually low but 9 000 being polled out of a registry of 45 000. Every precinct in every ward gives a Democratic majority. Wilford's (Comptroller) majority is 8 000. The Democrats on the Legislative ticket received a majority of 6 000.

General Political News.

NASHVILLE Nov 2 — The House by a vote of 36 to 40, tabled a resolution offered for a new election of U S Senator on the ground of the ineligibility of Cooper.

DETROIT Nov 2 At the charter election to day the Democratic Mayor and city ticket were elected.

CINCINNATI Nov 2 — Judge Storer of the Superior Court has granted an injunction restraining the Board of Education from carrying into execution the resolution prohibiting the reading of the Bible and religious books and sacred music in the public schools. The ground upon which the petitioners prayed for an injunction is that the framers of the constitution by declaring that religion is essential to good government denied to the Board of Education the right to exclude all manner of religious instruction. The case will be heard on Thursday.

Horrible Murder in Mississippi

MEMPHIS Nov 2 — A horrible murder was committed at Okalona Mississippi on Saturday night. Major Shephard Collector of Internal Revenue while lying in bed prostrated by paralysis, and unable to lift his head, was shot through the heart by his son Lemuel who entered the room just as his mother was leaving. A drunken fit is supposed to be the chief cause. He has been arrested. Great excitement prevails.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 2 — A destructive fire occurred in the city of Greenville, consuming seventeen business houses. The total loss is over $150 000.

LOUISVILLE Nov 2 — W Moriarty, a soldier of 1812 82 years old died to-day.

Later from the New York Election

NEW YORK, Nov 3 — The Democratic State ticket appears to have been elected by a majority of at least ten thousand. From every county there are reports of Radical loss on the vote for Grant. Gen Sigel ran ahead of his ticket in this and other large cities. His total vote will probably exceed that cast for Greeley or any candidate on the Radical ticket. At this writing, 3 A M., the Democrats appear to have secured a majority in each branch of the State Legislature, though full returns may record a majority in the Senate for the Radicals.

The Herald says the returns indicate the success of the Democratic ticket, but the Republicans have a working majority in the Legislature. The Democrats lose heavily in the city, but the Republicans lose heavily throughout the State. The election has gone by default by a short vote after the fashion of the late October election. In this city the vote compared with last year's shows a Democratic loss of over 25,000. The deficiency in the aggregate vote is nearly $40,000. To sum up, the general result in the State will signify practically little or nothing without a change in the Legislature, which, according to the latest returns, appears to be more strongly Republican on joint ballot than last June. It says shameless and cunning frauds have again defeated the Republicans in a general vote in the State. The vote polled here yesterday by repeaters cannot have fallen below 20,000. While we will have a handsome majority in the Assembly, we fear that the Senate may have been lost by fraudulent votes and unworthy men among Republicans in certain localities.

The Times says the Republicans gained 20,000 in the city but the Republican counties return badly. The Democratic State ticket is probably carried. The entire efforts of the leaders appear to have been chiefly directed to securing the control of the State Senate and the election of a majority of the Assemblymen, more especially the former, with the purpose of bringing the State in accordance with Gov Hoffman. The latest returns indicate a Democratic majority in the State of between 7,000 and 10,000. The Senate stands 17 Democratic to 15 Republicans. The Democrats have apparently gained four and lost two districts. The Assembly is very close. The Republicans are credited with the certain loss of 12 members and a gain of two. Several districts are still in doubt. Placing them as last year, the Assembly stands 66 Republicans and 62 Democrats, but this is liable to amendment. In this city Garvin, Dem, is re-elected District Attorney Schirreher, Coroner and Brady Judge of the Supreme Court—all Tammanyites.

It is estimated that the House stands 75 for prohibition, and 121 for license. Brooks, Republican, is elected to Congress in the Seventh District by 2,000 majority. Additional returns of the election in this State do not vary the result indicated in last night's dispatches. So far Claflin leads Adams 21,000.

Pork Packing and Revenue Tax

WASHINGTON, Nov 4 Some time ago Commissioner Delano decided, that by the Internal Revenue law, as it now stands, pork packers are liable to be taxed as manufacturers. The pork packers think this unjust and the Chambers of Commerce of New York, Boston, Cincinnati Chicago and St Louis sent a delegation here to protest against it. These gentlemen called on the Commissioner to-day, but he gave it as his opinion, that the fault is not with him but with Congress, and that Congress was the place to go for redress. An effort will be made to get the Commissioner to call the attention of Congress to the subject.

After weeks of vain debating in the Cortes the ministers of that party have resigned. Serrano must follow them and then Prim remains master. Serrano has served as clerk for his ambition. FRIDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 5 1869

An Inadequate Remedy

We have shown heretofore that those persons among us who are trying to keep wages up by denouncing Chinese and warning the employers of labor not to hire them are pursuing the wrong course for the accomplishment of their object. They should look in another direction. Chinese labor will not bring about a general reduction of wages. The number of Chinese is too few and their sphere of employment is too limited. There are not enough of them in the country to perform one hundredth part of the labor required in our Pacific States alone nor will there ever be at the rate at which they have been coming into the country. Besides, there are comparatively few branches of industry in which they are fitted to engage and as a general thing those among us find employment at the lower kinds of labor. A general diminution of wages will therefore not be effected by their instrumentality. Cheap labor, however, is coming from the East. It is making its appearance already in cheap products. It is coming with cheap capital and cheap goods of all descriptions; and as our railroad connections become established and perfected, we shall gradually come down to the Eastern level. Here, as we have before pointed out, is the source of the cheap labor which threatens the Pacific States, and the man who is harping on the Chinaman as the prospective cause of a reduction of wages is shooting very wide of the mark.

Cheap woolen goods, manufactured at the East, are now in our markets, and are embarrassing the production of our Oregon mills. During war times, while war prices prevailed at the East, we could manufacture here and pay high prices for labor. But prices at the East have since fallen, and all the products of industry are now offered in the markets there at low rates. We of the Pacific States will now import goods from there, because we can import them at less cost than to manufacture them here. The result will be injurious to our home labor, but this cannot be helped, for people always buy in the cheapest market. The result will be that the East will supply us with woolen goods and all other articles of manufacture at lower rates than we can manufacture them ourselves, and we will be compelled to reorganize our industries on a basis very nearly like that of the East. To put it differently, everything here will be forced to come down. In California this result is now appearing. Mark, now, it is not Chinese labor that is doing this, but it is the cheaper white labor of the Eastern States. Our factories here might run by employing Chinese in the ruder operations of labor, and employing the more skilful labor of white persons in the higher branches, but as there are those among us who say Chinese must not be employed, the factories will ultimately be forced to stop, the whites engaged in them will be thrown out of employment with the Chinese, and the East will do our work so long as we have money to pay for it, (which will not be long), and then all prices here, including wages, rents and interest, will be forced to a lower basis.

These suggestions, brief as they are, will serve to show how narrow is the view of those persons among us who think that by howling against Chinese labor they are taking a sure way to prevent a reduction of wages. They have no conception of the magnitude of the subject, and the remedy they propose is utterly futile. But probably they will not learn better until experience teaches them.

Bravo!

The San Francisco Examiner is coming on bravely. That paper proclaims itself "the leading Democratic journal of the Pacific coast," and all the other organs of the party have conceded the claim. But the Examiner is noticeably evincing a disposition to "go back on" Democratic principles. In speaking of "future issues" it counts the negro out. "He will no longer furnish a hobby for political demagogues." Wonderful discovery! What will the Examiner's party do without this "hobby" which its "political demagogues" have been riding so long? But let the Examiner proceed. "Sambo" is now a freeman," (another wonderful discovery) "and in three-fourths of the States of the Union is entitled to exercise the franchise of suffrage." (Discovery more wonderful still.) "The Fifteenth Amendment must cease within the next year to form an element of party divisions. This prospect should be a matter of congratulation to us all. For years past the negro question has kept the Union distracted." And the upshot of all this is that "the negro must now take his chance with the rest of us and hoe his row as best he may." To crown the whole we are informed that "there are other questions besides the negro to engage the attention of the white race."

These utterances, when their source is considered, are simply amazing. To think that "the leading Democratic organ of the Pacific coast" should have made such discoveries almost passes belief. For twenty years the Democratic party has known nothing but the negro. It has fought every political battle for a dozen years on the negro. It has made the negro almost the sole issue in politics even until the elections of last month. But now at last the "leading organ on this coast gets a glimpse of the truth and announces that the time has come to let the negro slide! Who shall say that the days of miracles are at an end?

Political Results of the Year.

The net results of the elections this year leave the two parties relatively as they were a year ago. That is to say, the Democrats control New York, while the Republicans control the rest of the country. Outside of New York the Democratic party now amounts to nothing. The party, or what there is left of it, must now submit without question to Tammany dictation. With the State of New York at its back, and the Western Democracy defeated, Tammany will hereafter have supreme control, and will crush out all attempts to place the party under Western leadership. In the meantime it is a matter of indifference to the Republicans what faction controls the Democratic party. The Republican party is in the ascendant throughout the country, and holds its ground firmly even on a short vote. We may dismiss the elections of this year with the remark that they leave the positions of the parties, with reference to each other, unchanged and that the leadership of the Democracy has been transferred absolutely to Tammany. In fact Tammany is now about all there is of the organization.

In General

For a month to come we expect to see the whole fraternity of Democratic editors in Oregon busy at work ciphering astonishing "gains" out of the election returns of the present year. They ought to be pretty expert at this business, for they have been at it through many a year of Democratic disaster.

The Herald took it upon itself to censure the "extravagance" of the Republican administration of the city, and the Common Council responds by cutting off a portion of the "organ's" "fat takes" in printing. The Herald calls for "retrenchment" and gets it. Good! We hope this will be quite satisfactory. It won't take long to save enough out of the organ's fees to pay that three hundred dollars appropriated for the Seward reception!

The Herald having stated that the Evening Commercial's views "don't matter much" in a certain question that paper very forcibly responds: "We think it is due more to the editor's obtuseness than to our position on this subject, for any cranium that will bring forth such leaden 'Sunday Leaders' and argue political theories right in the face of legal decisions, cannot very well understand the logic of our remarks upon any subject." Now that's really unkind!

It is one of the curious signs of the times that Chief Justice Chase is looming up again as a Democratic candidate for President. Many of the more sagacious members of the party are beginning to see that it is positive madness to hope for success with any candidate who has about him the least taint of the Copperheadism which characterized the party during the war, or of the repudiation doctrine which has characterized it since. The name of Chase offers the best chance for getting rid of this odium, and it can probably develop strength enough to crush Hoffman, now the only formidable rival of Chase in the ranks of the party.

The St. Louis Democrat denies that the large vote Andrew Johnson received for Senator came from the unreconstructed members of the Tennessee Legislature. It says those who voted for him were to a great extent men of his own stamp who violently resisted and denounced rebellion and have lately come to hate 'Radicals' with a furious hatred. His harsh measures to the rebels while Military Governor of Tennessee still rankle in their memory, and they were more willing to support a Republican than their old enemy. However this may be he was defeated and the Senate will hear no more of his policy.

POLITICAL

Although Geary's majority in Pennsylvania is but 4,596 while that of Williams candidate for Supreme Judge is 5,783, yet Geary's vote is only 725 below that of Williams, whose competitor, Pershing ran behind his ticket. The total vote for Governor in the State is 576,508, against [illegible] 662 for President last fall.

The New York Legislature last winter was notoriously corrupt. A few of the Republicans joined the great body of Democratic corruptionists, and by this combination some acts of a most scandalous character were got through the Legislature. But it is a noticeable fact that the constituents of these recreant Republicans refused in every instance to renominate them while the Democratic corruptionists in almost every case have been renominated.

The Herald makes the following statement: "The OREGONIAN congratulates the Commercial on its having ceased opposition to the Fifteenth Amendment." The Commercial notices this by saying: "We ask a correction from both our contemporaries. We neither oppose nor advocate the Fifteenth Amendment but accept the fact of its becoming part of the Constitution as inevitable." The OREGONIAN has no correction to make. It did not "congratulate the Commercial on its having ceased opposition to the Fifteenth Amendment." It said nothing about that paper's opposition to or support of the article. It simply stated that the Commercial sensibly concludes that the ratification is certain. That paper should not allow the false statements of the organ to agitate it in this way.

The New York Sun gives a history of the Manhattan Club, from which it appears to have been formed four years ago by the Democrats, who didn't want to call it by a name that signified anything, so named it Manhattan. Soon it was run by a ring who assessed taxes of $200 each on the rank and file, and got the money without being quizzed. Manton Marble became a member and Secretary and occasioned the black balling of Sweene and Tweed. Weeks, the monster cook also got offended, and dire dissensions thus or so. Recently, the rank and file growing still more seditious, "investigated," asked impertinent questions as to how the club had incurred a debt of $50,000, and recently held a meeting from which the officers purposely absented themselves. The mutineers, however, elected Godfrey Gunther Chairman, appointed a committee to draft a new constitution, which should limit the term of office of the officers, adopted measures for bringing the subject before the Legislature, and waxed very indignant generally. And so it stands.

The Herald in an oracular political article gets off the following: "It is quite reasonably conjectured that the programme by which all adverse interests are to be pacified in order to secure the election of Williams to the Senate again, involves the question of who shall fill a seat on the Supreme Bench that is expected to be ready against the proper time. The plan, so far as outsiders can judge, from indications, is about as follows: The present U S District Judge being uneasy at the apparent approach of the time when it will be possible for the Oregon Herald to carry out its purpose of having him removed from that office desired to be promoted out of danger, and determined to complicate Williams' plans by allowing his name to be used as a probable candidate for the Senate." The braying of an egotistical ass! This donkey of the Herald is trying to make the people believe that he has risen to the dignified position of an antagonist of the persons mentioned! If the influence of mediocrity, or rather of contemptible inferiority, has ever risen higher than this, we have not heard of it.

The ex President said at Louisville that he was the earliest and most devoted friend of Henry Clay. The Buffalo Express says: "The fact is that Mr. Fillmore was one of the most active and determined opponents Henry Clay had in the Whig party in 1839, and being of considerable influence then did as much, perhaps as any other man to throw the vote of the State of New York against him in the Whig National Convention of that year, defeating his presidential aspirations and securing the nomination of General Harrison." He also said he had belonged to no party and had taken no active part in politics for many years. In 1864 Mr. Fillmore wrote a letter to J. L. Douglas, of Brooklyn, in which he took the most gloomy view of affairs, and remarked that a change of Administration might change the feelings of the South toward us. He looked upon McClellan's election "as the last hope for the restoration of the Union, an honorable peace, and the security of personal liberty." He added: "I shall cast my vote for McClellan and Pendleton." How is it that the ex-President belonged to no party?

COUGHS AND COLDS are often overlooked. A continuance for any length of time causes irritation of the Lungs or some chronic Throat Disease. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" are offered with the fullest confidence in their efficacy, giving almost invariably sure and immediate relief.

All painful troubles and discolorations of the skin may be alleviated or removed by the use of BURNETT'S KALLISTON.

CHEAPER LIGHTS.—One of the great needs of the present is cheaper light for business houses and families [illegible] the necessities of the age have crowded a very [illegible] share of the business of the twenty four hours into the night It is no exaggeration to say that in [illegible] cities, especially twenty five per cent more [illegible] than formerly is done after nightfall and there is [illegible] per cent of lighting material used among an equal number of people The cheaper and more convenient lights [illegible] no doubt have much to do in bringing the people into such habits but the practice of night work has outrun the tendency to cheapness of lighting [illegible] In this city no hotel or house requiring many lights for a considerable part of the night, can really afford to burn gas at the ruling rates It is the [illegible] all the Pacific coast cities lighted by gas. Kerosene [illegible] are inferior to gas and though they cost less are also too expensive to say nothing of the dangers of [illegible] and conflagrations incident to its use Candles [illegible] for no place but the kitchen or the coal hole. The [illegible] some new means of procuring good lights at [illegible] A good many experiments have been made in the direction of discovery accompanied by a good [illegible] failures. We see noticed in the San Francisco papers of a new gas generator which is said to furnish good light at a cost scarcely worth mention The Call says [illegible] is nothing more than carburetted air, and gives a good light, at a cost so small that it will most certainly come in general use The gas is generated from [illegible] in the following manner The bowl of the lamp [illegible] wick which has been saturated with [illegible] under the bowl is a fan propelled by clock work [illegible] with it by a tube The machinery is [illegible] up and set in motion when air is forced up [illegible] the saturated wick, and out of the burner where [illegible] The flame is steady of about four candles [illegible] and a table-spoon full will burn for [illegible] hours. As the gasoline is cheaper than coal [illegible] will see that the cost is not very great [illegible] owing the patent propose to put up machines [illegible] already furnished with gas-fixtures, [illegible] at one-tenth what the gas company now [illegible] Where persons do not desire many lights, they [illegible] lamps at low rates, and, after the lamps [illegible] purchased, the cost is comparatively nothing [illegible] that one of these generators has been brought [illegible] for exhibition and trial If it shall prove [illegible] for it, it will be just the thing wanted

[illegible] TERRITORY.—Hon S P McDonald, member of the Legislature from Clarke county called on us [illegible] he came home to visit during the recess of [illegible] We are indebted to him for the following [illegible]

A bill is pending before the Legislature to license stage [illegible] between Olympia and Monticello charging [illegible] $500 a year, to be expended in keeping the road in repair In order to carry the mails, the [illegible] Davis & Co, have expended out of pocket from $1500 to $2000 a year to keep the [illegible] condition

Capt. Smith's new steamer in course of building at [illegible] is nearly completed She is to run between [illegible] and Astoria.

[illegible] at Vancouver the following persons [illegible] Mayor, J M Fletcher; Recorder, A C [illegible] Treasurer, A Riggs; Assessor, I T Mantiby [illegible] J. Hartman, Councilmen C R Stegart, J [illegible] G H. Whitney, J Petrain, C Slocum, S R [illegible] J. McMullen and J Eddings were tied. Stegart, [illegible] Brant and Riggs were on the Citizen's ticket, the others on 'Everybody's ticket Of the [illegible] three are Democrats and four are Republicans. Of the whole number of officers elected or tied [illegible] are Democrats, one doubtful and the others [illegible]

[illegible] THEATER.—The play of Little Barefoot' [illegible] last evening to a rather small house but [illegible] of its performance was highly satisfactory [illegible] in delighting her audience with [illegible] of the character of Little Barefoot, and [illegible] and Mr Bailey were excellent in their parts. [illegible] particularizing the entire play was on [illegible] style and afforded the audience an evening's [illegible] rarely excelled in pleasing qualities. To-[illegible] will be presented for the last time this season, the [illegible] play of Lucretia Borgia, to be followed by the [illegible] farce of "The Youth who Never Saw a Woman," in which Mrs. Carter will appear—in the first as [illegible] and in the latter in the character of a boy

[illegible] COMMISSIONERS' COURT.—The County Commissioners [illegible] on Wednesday and a part of yesterday, most of the time being giving to the consideration of bills against the county The following are about [illegible] of business transacted

[illegible] of a license to V Enos to keep a ferry for [illegible] across the Columbia Slough was granted.

The bills of several attorneys (Whalley, Mulkey By [illegible]) for services as prosecuting attorney [illegible] before justices of the peace were disallowed [illegible] consideration of bids for repairs on the Court House was postponed till Friday

An allowance was made to E R Dufur Assessor for [illegible] the property of the county—$600

[illegible] AT SWAN ISLAND.—Capt West informs us that [illegible] getting along quite well with the work of dredging [illegible] at Swan Island bar having already opened about seven hundred feet, measuring from the lower end of the bar. With the exception of a short distance at the beginning, the bottom has been found to be clay of [illegible] The channel therefore, when made may be relied upon to be permanent Capt West also informs us that the bark Elwood when she ran aground, was out of the channel. The pilot knew well enough where the [illegible] was, but the vessel steered badly and at a place where the water in the channel was twenty feet deep [illegible] and ran into the bank

[illegible] HONOR.—Among the 'Editorial Notes of the Alta of the 30th ult we find the following We [illegible] that Judge Deady of Oregon, will be pressed by a large portion of the Pacific delegation in Washington for the position of Circuit Judge made vacant by the [illegible] of the Federal Judiciary Judge Deady is at present the District Judge of Oregon During the frequent absences of Judge Field he has filled the [illegible] of the Circuit Court acceptably both to the bar and [illegible] He is a gentleman of fine legal attainments, great judicial experience and urbane manners His promotion would give universal satisfaction

[illegible] OUT OF THE WILDERNESS.—Rev J O Raynor [illegible] for Congress in Washington Territory against [illegible], and has been trying the delights of the climate of Sitka for two years writes I am ordered from this post to San Francisco where I expect to receive orders for some post in the interior I may spend several days or weeks in your city We shall come [illegible] on the Newbern which has now gone with supplies for the troops at Kodiac and Kenay Expect to [illegible] toward the last of October After two years of exile I shall be very glad to meet you etc.

[illegible] TRANSPORTATION.—Through freight from New York is now received at Sacramento by regular freight trains, in fourteen days and it is calculated by the railroad company that they can regularly lay down goods in San Francisco in fifteen or sixteen days The charges [illegible] through freight are now very low considering the [illegible] it is carried No insurance is required upon goods sent by railroad and thus one of the large elements of expense to shippers by steamers is avoided Through freights by railroad are payable in currency both ways

THE CHINESE MURDER CASE.—There seems to be some doubt whether the witnesses [illegible] the Chinese murder on Alder street, can be found Thus far no one has been discovered who will admit that he knows anything about it. The belief among the officers is that the witnesses have been sent away or suborned to secrecy The [illegible] the murderer and the murdered man all belong to the same party, and hence the anxiety of the Chinese to screen the guilty men.

PERSONAL.—Under this head the Advocate of San Francisco, says: Rev C G Belknap of the Oregon [illegible], called on us Saturday last He is the pastor of the Methodist Church in Vancouver Washington Territory. His wife being in feeble health he has brought his family down to spend the winter hoping that Mrs B. will be benefitted by the mildness and [illegible] of a [illegible] season

FRESHEST GLEANINGS

While the Rev John Jackson of Ledbury Herfordshire England was preaching a few weeks ago his former cook walked up to the top of the middle aisle with a young baby and told the congregation it was the rector's

Boucicault kindly sent word to the Princess of Wales that she had better not attend the presentation of his latest play in her present state of health as it contained a scene somewhat more startling than usual She replied that he could not frighten her

For many days the cheap papers of Paris have been filled with details of the Pantin tragedy, and have had in consequence an enormous sale The Petit Journal sold 403 950 copies in one day Some contemporaries who boast of the largest circulation in the world should make a note of this

Hitherto no Jews have been admitted to any Austrian university as professors This prohibition has now been removed, and the first Jewish professor has been appointed in the person of Dr Mauthner, who has obtained the Chair of Opthalmic Surgery in the University of Innsbruck

Catharine Beecher, the oldest member of the Beecher family is 69 years old She was betrothed early in youth to a very brilliant young scholar who is still remembered—Prof Fisher, of Yale College and he having been lost at sea Miss Beecher has remained single all her life

The New York Times in an elaborate exposition of the operations of the great gold gambling conspiracy, says A letter purporting to be from Mrs Grant is published, showing that Corbin had sought to involve her by purchasing gold on her account and carrying it for her profit; but the letter only shows that the President, hearing of it, had requested it to be stopped The Times account also says that '$60 000 worth of gew gaws were forward to Washington by these same "scandalous operators and thrown from the White House at midnight"

Maryland is now one of the most hopeless of Democratic States—having become so since the return of a large proportion of its population from the rebel armies It is not surprising therefore that Col Leonard, Comptroller of the State Treasury, has just published a list of 263 officers, Sheriffs, Collectors of taxes, etc, who are defaulters to the State not having closed their accounts The list runs back as far as 1842, and, it is significant, though not surprising, that 111 or nearly one-half, are men who have been elected to office since the treachery of Governor Swan gave the State into the hands of the Democracy

STIMULANTS.—George D. Prentice, who, according to all accounts ought to be pretty familiar with what men usually term stimulants, writes thus truly and beautifully

There is a time when the pulse lies low in the bosom and beats low in the veins, when the spirit sleeps which, apparently knows no waking sleeps in its house of clay, and the windows are shut the doors hung in the invisible crape of melancholy when we wish the golden sunshine pitchy darkness and wish to fancy clouds where no clouds be This is a state of sickness where physic may be thrown to the dogs for we wish none of it What shall raise the spirit? What shall make the heart beat music again, and the pulse through all the myriad thronged halls in the house of life? What shall make the sun kiss the eastern hills for us with all his old awakening gladness and the night overflow with moonlight love and flowers Love itself is the greatest stimulant the most intoxicating of all and performs all these miracles and is a miracle itself and is not at the drugstore whatever they say The counterfeit is in the market, but the winged god is not a money changer we assure you Men have tried many things but still they ask for stimulant Men try to bury the floating dead of their own souls in the wine cup but the corpse rises We see their faces in the bubbles The intoxication of drink sets the world whirling again and the pulses to playing music and the thoughts galloping, but the clock only runs down sooner and an unnatural stimulant only only leaves the house it filled with the wildest revelry more silent more sad more deserted There is only one stimulant that never intoxicates—duty Duty puts a clear sky over every man into which the skylark—happiness always goes singing

Mr. Seward in Mexico

President Juarez has made his usual speech to Congress, wherein he asserts that foreigners are amply protected, and, now that the Tamaulipans are quieted, his countrymen enjoy peace. The President of the Congress has replied to this assuring speech, observing, among other things, that when Mr. Juarez reaches the end of his term he will deposit tranquilly in the hands of his people the delicate charge of government. Minister Romero has made a report showing how Mexico has reaped more than $13,000,000 from her revenues, and to the amazement of those who did not expect a sum so great, has spent less. Still there are pronunciamientos and rumors of pronunciamientos, wandering cut-throats doing a business in disorder, tropic rowdies speculating in revolutions, as Mr. Juarez would say. The country was a month ago at peace, the mutiny at Tamaulipas having gone under, but who can calculate upon a Republic founded on earthquake? Here is San Luis Potosi in a state of eruption, with an influential but desperate ex-Governor at the head of her rebels, and again we hear that Gen. Placido Vega, who is said to be equally in favor of secession and annexation, but who is probably no more brilliant a vagabond than the rest of the pronouncers, is threatening the State of Sinaloa. There may be rags and tags of revolt everywhere, but we doubt if they amount to anything more than a question of police—one of the gravest and wildest character, to be sure, but not a question of revolution.

Under these circumstances a venerable statesman has just entered Mexico. He is prepared to test for himself the value of his policy in years by gone, and the worth of the people whose course sustained it perhaps as much as he sustained them. He will take his slow march through a country which the pronouncer and robber have made infamous with a kind of shabby romance; he will see mighty pictures and desert life, and such a show of bare mountains, and such a contrast of wild solitude with meager population, as rarely comes to a traveler in settled countries. Withal the great ex-Secretary will make the acquaintance of many kind-hearted people, and of many willing ones, whose highest wish is to see their country happy and at peace upon the model of the United States. He will probably gather increased respect for the invincible stoicism and firmness of Juarez, the fruitful energy of Romero, and the marked astuteness of Lerdo, well-named the Mexican Seward. He will discover much to study in men, much to ponder over in peoples, much to marvel at in scenery, something to give him satisfaction, much to cause him melancholy. The venerable American will find himself face to face with those twin pillars of a mightier State than Mr. Juarez actually governs, Ixtaccihuatl and Popocatepetl, and in the Valley of Mexico he may behold a picture paradise, with something of the substance of the Garden of Eden, wanting. He may turn a shrewd eye upon a country, the sublime freshness of whose natural morning is offset by the medieval dusk and dread which hover over its institutions; where the free and familiar citizen of the Republic is tormented on the one hand by a slavery which is of the Church, and on the other by a liberty which is of the Devil.

In short, Mr. Seward is about to observe in Mexico the phenomenon of nations in the phenomenon of countries, and he will value thrice highly institutions like our own when he realizes what it costs to do without them and how hard it is to win them. From the man who has already a perfect map of Alaska in his mind's eye, we shall expect a description of Mexico not unworthy of Humboldt, but we shall suspect the integrity of his report if he simply treats us to metaphors and figures, and not to men and things. Doubtless our wandering statesman will ascertain for himself how imperfectly and how incorrectly current reports describe the condition of the country; doubtless, too, he will become familiar with the points of the Canto case, and unravel what Mr. Juarez does not, and what for a year past has been an exceeding mystery. Finally we commend our distinguished truant to a watching Providence.—N. Y. Tribune.

A Remarkable Article from M. de Girardin.

THE EMPIRE'S DOWNFALL.

Sensation has been caused in Paris by an article which has appeared in the Liberte, by M. Emile Girardin, in which, having enumerated the failures and blunders of the Empire, he proceeds to predict its fall. "The Second Empire," he writes, "is toward the end; its fall is inevitable. The fall of the Empire of '52 is the revenge of the Revolution of '48. Was it possible to avoid this retaliation of the Revolution of '48, this expiation of the coup d' etat of '51 and fall of the Empire of '52? Yes; 1852, and again in 1860, by causing France to forget the loss of her liberties, in giving a great impulse to her prosperity and the wise irrigation of all the abundant sources of wealth which she possesses, and finally by a great financial and fiscal reform, which then formed the solution of the peace problems in the European programme, and of the Government's task of promoting the general happiness of the people. Yes; even again in June, 1869, after the general elections (although it was very late,) by redeeming all the faults committed—by a plebiscite rendering in full to France not only all the liberties of which she had been deprived in '51, but also those which were omitted in '48 in the participation of the popular triumph. In place of a plebiscite, which would have penetrated all the stratum, even the most dense of universal suffrage, what has the Imperial Government, not having to recede, nor advance resolutely, accomplished? It has given the preference to a Senatus Consulte which leaves the immense mass of the electors indifferent or defiant. In place of an amnesty without conditions, restrictions, or exceptions, which would have been a great act, it has divested the amnesty of August 14th of all its prestige by the statement which appeared two days, after in the Journal Officiel, a most inconsistent statement, which declared that the amnesty excepted M. Ledru-Rollin, one of the three most powerful personifications of the Provisional Government, whom the outlawed of 1815 and 1830 himself had hastened to acknowledge with enthusiasm, and to salute with transports of joy. Is it still possible this revenge of the revolution of 1848, expiation of the coup d'etat of '51, and fall of the empire of '52? It is this, without fear or illusion, we ask of a man accustomed to look revolution in the face without fear, but also of a man who never deceives himself, and knows that revolution, cruel mother that she is, has never given birth to liberty but to destroy it. Here is our response: If he fails to estimate correctly all the difficulties of the situation, if danger neither enlightens, inspires, nor hastens him, and if he loses the last hour which remains to him, the empire is lost!

Wooden Women.

The Queen, of Sept. 25, says: "A wooden woman is so far worse than a wooden man to deal with, inasmuch as you cannot get so easily out of her way. A man is a thing you meet with outside your house, and to be avoided at will; but a wife is at bed and board, and not to be got rid of save in an unsatisfactory and fragmentary manner. If you come home wearied and harrassed by business annoyances, there is your wooden wife without a thought or an emotion, or a sentiment of sympathy that you can take comfort by. She is either broadly merry, or prim and cold; and if you are of the kind to whom the sympathy of home and the comradeship of women are precious helps in your way of life, you have to learn the sad lesson of doing without, for you will get none here, where there is none to give. She will break in upon your deepest distress with a trivial complaint about the servants or the dinner, and think you selfish if you do not enter into her annoyances as if there were grave disasters. You ought never to make calculations or cast up sums in the presence of a wooden woman, unless you can arrest the figures just where you stand in your mind when she interrupts you; and when you are at such work as this she is always interrupting you. Not from malice pretense, but because she cannot understand that she may not do as she likes, and that she can be a nuisance to any one.

If not torpidly orthodox, when they are absolutely and hermetically sealed so far as regards the reception of any new opinion, wooden women are apt to be of the very advanced school and with a little nervous energy, not introspective, but enough to set the machine in motion, make bold pioneers for the march of unpopular theories. For, indeed, they are very much like machines when once set agoing, and no ridicule can stop them. No sensitive woman could be a pioneer unless, of that enthusiastic kind which thinks itself consecrated to social martyrdom such as it is for the glory of God and the progress of humanity, so that the women of the platform kind are necessarily wooden when not fanatic, and do that rough pioneering work without suffering as the more tender would suffer. We do not deny that they are useful, but we cannot admire all the useful workers of society, even while we profit by their labors, else we should be bound to place chimney sweepers and scavengers among the foremost of the admirable.

Wooden women are generally inflexible in the matter of payments, and for the most part proficients in keen bargaining. They would rather die than give a cabman six pence beyond his legal fare, and they haggle for pence, not unsuccessfully, with the ragged flowerseller at the door. They are by no means weak in any direction, by which they escape certain dangers at the loss of certain graces, and many a time a wooden woman is praised for a propriety of conduct which has cost her no trouble to maintain, because she has no temptation in herself for anything else. But, on the contrary, when she does offend against the laws of morality or propriety, she does so with a solidness and hardness that nothing can upset or rebuke. Sometimes she has a pet a cat, or dog, or bird on which she expends the small amount of womanly sentiment which keeps her alive; but she never loves a fellow-creature as she loves a dumb beast, and even when she is a mother she prefers her lapdog to her baby. She does her duty, however, as well as she knows how; and when her husband dies, as he mostly does, before her, she mourns for him with all the outward show prescribed by decency. But she cannot let things drift, even on the day of his death, and she has been known to rate the nurse for extravagance in tea, even while the breath was leaving the poor, wasted body. She sees no unfitness in this. Death is a necessity, and has to be borne, but extravagance in tea is a remediable fault, and no time is unsuitable for the correction of misdemeanors, according to her no moment ill-timed for setting things straight when they have got away. She is a martinet if she holds to the use of order at all; and the very essence of woodenness is inability to discover either fitness of time or elasticity of circumstance—treating all things as if made for the mallet and the rammer to pound up as they will.

NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!

W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.

He respectfully refers to the following

CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be attached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering from the effects of secret indulgence, absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, blotted and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of wedlock or the enjoyment of life. It is horrible to see thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are afflicted. If any of these horrible life-destroying maladies come on, they are cured for and cured before it be too late by sending them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, who has made private diseases his especial study for years. He is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is earnestly hoped that those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing a list of cures in curing all diseases in a few days, infesting the public by using the names of eminent physicians of Europe and other places. Be therefore careful to make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse, solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noises like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will forfeit Five Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of his complaint by any of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are troubled under any of these fearful maladies, should remember the sacred responsibility resting upon them and not fail to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give the patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating their symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent by mail, express, or or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and charlatans who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the public. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and too lazy to work at their trades. Some are barbers, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who will call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearny street, corner Commercial, Private Entrance on C[illegible], San Francisco. Post Office box 250.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 952 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.
